

Inter/nationalism from the New World to the Holy Land Encountering Palestine in American Indian Studies

lecture by

STEVEN SALAITA

Professor of Indigenous Studies

Tuesday November 4, 2014
12 pm – 1:30 pm · INTS 1113
U.C. Riverside

Dr. Salaita is author of Israel's Dead Soul (Temple UP, 2011) and The Uncultured Wars: Arabs, Muslims, and the Poverty of Liberal Thought (Zed Books, 2008). His presentation explores the processes by which Palestine has entered into the field of American Indian Studies, paying special note to the problems and prospects of this recent interchange.

Sponsored by UCR Departments of Comparative Literature, English, Ethnic Studies, Media and Cultural Studies, and Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies, and by UAW Local 2865, Riverside Unit, and Students for Justice in Palestine.

Free and open to the public. Disabled accessible. For more information email david.lloyd@ucr.edu.