Captivity as Spectacle of Consent
María Amparo Ruiz de Burton, Justin Bieber, and the Racial Burlesque
A LECTURE BY MARY PAT BRADY
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH, CORNELL UNIVERSITY
Monday, October 27 ● 12-2 p.m. ● HMNSS 2212

and

CHICANA/O CULTURES IN TRANSIT: AN EXPERIMENTAL DIALOGUE
Monday, October 27 ● 4-6 p.m. ● INTS 1111
Featuring Mary Pat Brady, Joo Ok Kim (UC President’s Postdoctoral Fellow, Asian American Studies, UC Irvine), and Nick Mitchell (Assistant Professor of Ethnic Studies, UCR)

Professor Mary Pat Brady is the author of Extinct Lands, Temporal Geographies: Chicana Literature and the Urgency of Space, which was awarded the Modern Language Association’s Prize for the Best Work of Latina/o and Chicana/o Literary and Cultural Criticism. An associate professor of English at Cornell University, she is currently working on a project that examines the relationship between neoliberalism and Latina/o literatures and cultures.

These events are free and open to the public. E-mail cesrc.ucr@gmail.com for more information.

Undisciplined Encounters is a series of experimental exchanges that seeks to extend conversations on race, power, critical gender and sexuality studies, and settler colonialism. It is sponsored by the Critical Ethnic Studies Research Center with support from the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences and the Departments of English, Ethnic Studies, and Media & Cultural Studies.